- 6. Exhibitors are responsible for knowing when their stock will be judged and are expected to display or parade their animals as directed. Failure to present their animals at the ring when called will result in disqualification.
- 7. Exhibitors are expected to accept stall assignments without controversy and cooperate with the superintendents in every way to preserve the educational value of the show. If requests are made for stall preferences, they must be made to the superintendent(s), no less than one week before the fair. NO STALLS WILL BE PROMISED, but we will do our best.
